FORGIVE

“Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?” Jesus answered,
“I say to you, not seven times
but seventy-seven times.”

MATTHEW 18:21-22

PRAYER FOR A COMMUNION OF DESIRE

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, renew my heart now with the power of Your Spirit. I embrace You and unite myself wholly to You. Unite me more closely to Your Body, the Church and never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

SACRAMENT PREPARATION

Marriage: Contact Deacon Robert Leake or Deacon Luke Mahsman at least six months in advance to schedule a wedding.

Baptism: If you are expecting or need information about Baptism, please contact Deacon Robert Leake or Deacon Luke Mahsman for a meeting.

MISSION

St. Joseph Catholic Church is a faith community, guided by the scriptures and traditions of the church, whose mission is to share the Good News of Jesus Christ through celebration of the liturgy, sacraments, prayer, faith fellowship, and service to others.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Perhaps we think that in offering forgiveness, even for the most grievous of wrongs, somehow excuses the person of their wrong and makes it almost acceptable. This is what makes revenge, retaliation, and punishment so attractive. We see forgiveness as being an eraser that easily wipes away the offense without consequence. Or, we may believe that in offering forgiveness I must somehow forget the wrong and open myself as a victim of even greater possible hurts in the future. In fact, forgiving my sister or brother of their wrongful actions or attitudes involves none of this. It does not erase anything or position me vulnerably as a doormat to be walked on.

Catholic Stewardship Appeal 2020/2021: Sisters and Brothers, the annual CSA will kick off the weekend of October 16-17th, 2020. We all know we are living through historic and difficult times, but we will get through this together. The CSA campaign this year is inspired by a verse from Jeremiah 29:11: "For I know the plan I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future."
Let us Trust in the Lord with all of our Hearts and strive to be good stewards of all those tremendous gifts our generous God has given to us. Fr. Matt

St. Joseph News

A Message from Fr. Matt and Finance Council Members of Holy Family & St Joseph

God Bless Your Generous Hearts

Sisters and Brothers, during these challenging times, we ask you to remember your commitment to support our beautiful parishes. Living through these extraordinary times presents many challenges to us, but like any "crisis" there are both dangers and opportunities. I have heard countless families express gratitude that during this pandemic, they have spent more time together, sharing meals and playing games. I have heard countless folks who are homebound who are thrilled that we have our Masses live-streamed. They feel part of the community again! Let us strive to see some of the silver linings.

In this same light, this might be an excellent time to switch to on-line giving with your tithe to the parish. We realize that some of the more senior members of our community may not be as familiar with this as the younger members. The truth is that electronic banking transactions are very commonplace and they are safe and secure. Please drop your offer of support in the basket at the entrance to the church, or you can drop it by the office, or if you would like to explore switching to on-line giving ... please follow these instructions from our Parish Bookkeepers.

From Cheryl Hirner at St Joseph:

In a couple of weeks we will have an online giving button set up on our web-site at:

<https://sjpalmyra.diojeffcity.org/>

The funds that are donated through the website will go directly into our bank account. When this option is available, we will have instruction in the bulletin on how to use it. The other option is to set us up on your banks Bill Pay website and have the checks automatically sent to us from the bank. Thank you and God bless you.

This month's needs for the Palmyra food pantry is toiletries. The food pantry is also looking for volunteers on Tuesday afternoons. Contact the food pantry for more information.
