3rd SUNDAY OF EASTER

[Jesus] said to him,
"Follow me." - Jn 21:19b

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

What prevents us from seeing the Lord? We are not used to seeing Jesus in the ordinary, everyday events of our lives. We expect some kind of startling, extraordinary revelation to occur that definitely and unmistakably sends a signal that God wants our attention. We don't expect a visit from Jesus while we are having breakfast, doing the dishes, running after the kids, negotiating a deal at work, or taking a shower! Sometimes when God simply stands on the shore of our lives casually looking for us, we don't recognize him. Did we ever stop and think that God is really and truly interested in the routine, run of the mill events of our lives? So, "what did you do today?" God may ask. Maybe we don't think that God is concerned about such things, or we are so consumed with life's demands that we give it little if any thought. Perhaps we are determined to achieve our own success, desire to control things ourselves or not really sure what God cares about. God is there. One day, out of the blue, God will get our attention and ask, "Do you love me?"

In these Cenacles for our present times, the Blessed Mother again is inviting us to join her in prayer in preparation for the coming of the Holy Spirit in a Second Pentecost to renew the face of the earth.

The Cenacle consists of (1) Invocation to the Holy Spirit (2) Five decades of the Rosary (3) Prayer for the Holy Father (4) Reading from a message of Our Lady from the book, "To the Priests, Our Lady's Beloved Sons" (5) Consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

The celebration of Holy Mass in honor of the Immaculate Heart of Mary will follow.

All are invited to please come and join us to honor Our Lady.
